Proceedings (In Chambers): ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

On November 1, 2022, Plaintiff Ethan T. Arroyo (“Plaintiff”) filed a complaint (“Complaint”) (ECF No. 1). On January 5, 2023, Plaintiff’s request to proceed in forma pauperis (ECF No. 5) was granted (ECF No. 7). On January 9, 2023, upon Plaintiff’s request (ECF No. 3), the Court Clerk issued a summons (ECF No. 8). On January 9, 2023, the Court issued the Case Management Order (“CMO”), which provides in Section III that Plaintiff must serve the Complaint promptly and file a proof of such service by no later than thirty (30) days after the date of the CMO—here, by February 8, 2023. (ECF No. 9 at 2.)

To date, Plaintiff has failed to file any proof of service or request an extension of time in which to do so. Accordingly, Plaintiff is ORDERED TO SHOW CAUSE no later than April 9, 2023 why this Court should not recommend that the action be dismissed with prejudice for failure to prosecute. Plaintiff may discharge this Order by filing a proof of service.

Alternatively, Plaintiff may decide to dismiss the Complaint without prejudice pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(1) by filing a Notice of Dismissal. The clerk is directed to provide Plaintiff with a Notice of Dismissal Form (CV-009).

Plaintiff is cautioned that failure to timely file a response to this Order to Show Cause or a proof of service may result in a recommendation that this action be dismissed without prejudice for failure to prosecute and obey Court orders pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b).

It is so ordered.
